COWBOY COOKING
from "Fast and Healthy" by Pillsbury

Chuck-Wagon Skillet Dinner

3/4 lb. extra-lean ground beef
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 (1 1/4 oz.) pkg. taco seasoning mix
1-1/2 cups water
1-1/2 cups thinly sliced zucchini
1 cup frozen whole kernel corn
1-1/2 cups uncooked instant rice
4 oz. (1 cup) shredded reduced fat Cheddar cheese

In large skillet, brown ground beef and onion; drain. Stir in remaining ingredients except rice and cheese; bring to a boil. Stir in rice. Reduce heat to low; cover and simmer 8 to 10 minutes or until liquid is absorbed, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat. Fluff mixture with fork; sprinkle with cheese. Cover; let stand 3 minutes or until cheese is melted.

Sour Cream Drop Biscuits

- 2 cups all purpose flour
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3 tablespoons shortening
- 2/3 cup skim milk
- 2/3 cup light sour cream

Heat oven to 450°F. Grease cookie sheet. Lightly spoon flour into measuring cup, level off. In medium bowl, combine flour, sugar, baking powder and salt; blend well. Using pastry blender or fork, cut in shortening until mixture is crumbly. In small bowl, combine milk and sour cream. Add all at once, stirring just until moistened. (If dough is too dry, add milk 1 teaspoon at a time.) To form each biscuit, drop 1/4 cup of dough onto greased cookie sheet.

Bake at 450°F. for 10 to 12 minutes or until peaks and bottoms are golden brown. Immediately remove from cookie sheet. Serve warm.

S.O.S. REPORT

by Martha Mobley

This was the first S.O.S. I've been to in eleven years. The first time I went, they only had 1 per year instead of twice a year like they do now. Fat Harold's at the Pad used to be called Harold's and was in a lot better condition. The Pad is now boarded up, probably for the last time. I must say, it has seen better days. Everyone tried to tell me how crowded it got at S.O.S., but you had to be there to experience just how crowded it really gets. I got down on Wednesday afternoon. After unpacking and making up the bed, I changed into my dancing shoes and headed for the clubs. Around 6:00 that evening, back to the apartment I went where I rested my dogs, fed my mouth, showered, and changed clothes. Approximately 2 hours later, I was back out heading towards the clubs, staying out until anywhere from 12:00 to 1:30. I did this for 4 days. Boy did I have sore feet. But it sure was fun! Believe I'll do it again. I heard the party at Tilghman's was fun, but I had to go to the Association meeting with Gail to pass out flyers for our benefit. Has anyone ever seen so much rain at an S.O.S.? Friday and Saturday morning it rained the most. There were a lot of Burlingtonians at S.O.S.. Most of them were present at the O.D. Arcade on Sunday to hear Linda play with Murl Augustine. She played great. I only got to hear about 1 1/2 hours before heading back to Burlington.

I also saw a lot of people from out of town whom I had met in the past. Two couples from Sanford were at the Summer Shag Explosion which was held in Burlington 3 years ago. Earlier this year, at Candy Brooks house, I met Chuck & Donna Ward from Southern Pines. They were at S.O.S., too. At Greenville's Association Workshop Meeting in July, I met Lynn Northrup from the Sun Coast Shag Club. Her husband Paul played Friday at Crazy Zacks. It's fun to meet people from out of town. You never know who you might see again the next time you go somewhere out of town.

Anyway, I had a large time and I think most everyone who went did too. Especially when I heard how many of us got sick after getting home!

was over six feet tall, so it wasn't his height he was always poking fun at!) His pride in being able to bring so many happy people together in one place always shone on his face.

An unexpected heart attack claimed the youngest old timer I have ever known and I, like so many others, will sorely miss him. I can guarantee you one thing though. We will all have private moments when we fight back the tears over his loss, but come this November, we will party like hell and celebrate his birthday like never before. Lee Huggins will live in our hearts and minds forever. The annual Old Timers Party will be both his legacy and our tribute to him.

Godspeed, Lee. Thank you for touching our lives!

The $200 Haircut

(Last month President Clinton caused a big delay for airlines over the Los Angeles airport while he got a last minute haircut... a $200 haircut.)

POSSIBLE REASONS THIS HAPPENED

1. He had a dollar off coupon that he felt compelled to use because he felt the regular price of $201 was just a bit ridiculous.
2. He wanted to find out how to run the economy and "only his hairdresser knows for sure."
3. His cousin, who was also his barber in Arkansas, doesn't have time to cut his hair now because of all of his duties as Secretary Of State.
4. Hillary told him that if he wanted some First Lady that night, he'd better get a First Haircut that morning.

But the Legend Lives On...

by Van Williams

On September 9, 1993, the shag world lost another of its old soldiers. Lee Huggins of Fayetteville was no doubt best known, not for his dancing (although he was a great shagger), but for being the father of unquestionably the most grandiose private shag party ever held. The annual Old Timers Party, held in Fayetteville each November, had its humble beginnings as a birthday party for Lee in 1981. That year, in response to his lovely wife Gayle's perennial question, "What would you like for your birthday this year?", Lee jokingly replied that he would like to throw a party for all the old timers he had known when he was younger and when his favorite hangout was The Pad at Ocean Drive. I don't think Lee ever suspected that Gayle would set out to accomplish this formidable task, but the results are history. With the help of a select group of friends (who would collectively become known as the old timers), Gayle tracked down an army of beach bums from Lee's younger days and threw one of the most memorable parties he had ever known. Lee was so ecstatic over that first event that he said if he never received another gift in his life, this was enough. He hastened to add, however, "Why can't we do this every year?" A legend was born.

Since that time, the annual Old Timers Party grew to be the quintessential shaggers' event. Attendance was by invitation only, and to be added to the guest list was a distinction indeed. Each year the party grew, and an elegant personal invitation to attend became one of the most coveted trophies in shagdom, eagerly awaited by each guest. Last year's extravaganza was hosted in the Grande Ballroom of the Howard Johnson Convention Center of Fayetteville, and was attended by nearly one thousand revelers. Yes, I said thousand! The party was extended to two nights (Friday & Saturday) and a Sunday morning hospitality suite function. Perhaps the most extraordinary thing about old timers is that it remained an Invitation Only party and was put on each year at NO COVER CHARGE to all of its guests. Once inside, you were treated to a feast of heavy hors d'oeuvres that would make any chef proud (many prepared by the Old Timers themselves). Although the Old Timers would never discuss the cost of this event, it had to be staggering, and was borne entirely by those putting on the event.

I first met Lee & Gayle Huggins at Shag Explosion in 1985, and we all had such a great time that Shirley and I were honored with our first invitation. We never suspected at the time that old timers would become the only event we ever looked forward to more than SOS. We came to know all the old timers themselves: Pepi & Pat, Edgar & Myrtle, Barney & Lynnette, Ray & Melissa, Pat & Cheryl and, of course, Lee & Gayle.

The image of Lee--smooth, gracious and devilishly handsome--mingling effortlessly with all his many guests will never fade from my mind. I will always see his crooked smile and remember his "short member" jokes. (Lee

BSC MEETING & BENEFIT HIGHLIGHTS

Apparently there was no shag club business discussed at the last meeting. Most of the meeting time was spent folding flyers and putting mailing labels on the folded flyers for mailing.

Flyers were passed out to other clubs at the ACSC meeting at S.O.S. This was done in lieu of another separate mailing.

From now on until the benefit is over we will be meeting weekly at either Al Fogleman's house or at Sawyer's Exterminating. There will be a meeting after the benefit is over to finalize all the figures. Meeting date will be announced.

A Polish Indian?

A man was walking along and saw a fellow with his ear against the ground. When he got close, the fellow said, "Come here and listen." So he went over, put his ear to the ground and listened for a long while. "I don't hear a thing," he said. "I know," the fellow said. "Its been like that all day."

Joke from a Prisoner

A man walks into a doctor's office, laid on his couch and said, "Doctor, I'm real confused. When I take a leak, I have to lift my leg. And when I get hungry, I eat Alpo. Also, I think I'm a dog." The doctor said, "How long have you had this problem?" The man replied, "Ever since I was a puppy!"

Faith in the Lord

Harry was taking pictures at the Grand Canyon when he stepped back too far and went over the cliff. There was a branch sticking out about 30 feet down, and he grabbed the branch. There he was, 30 feet down and 500 feet above the river, and he hollered "Oh Lord!" Then a booming voice came down from above, "I am the Lord, Harry, and I'm up here. Do you believe in the Lord?" Harry said, "Yes, I do believe in you." The voice said "Do you believe that I can do anything?" Harry said, "Yes, I believe that you can do anything." "Well", the voice said, "you just let go, and I will take care of you." Harry looked up and hollered "Is there anybody else up there?"

The Plan

In the beginning was the Plan.

And then came the Assumptions.

And the Assumptions were without form.

And the Plan was without substance

And darkness was upon the face of the workers.

And they spake among themselves, saying:

"It is a crock of shit and it stinketh."

And the workers went unto their Supervisors and said,

"It is a pail of dung, and none may abide the odor thereof."

And the Supervisors went unto their Managers saying,

"It is a container of excrement and is very strong, such that none may abide it."

And the Management Committee spake among themselves, saying to one another,

"It contains that which aids plant growth and is very powerful."

And the Vice Presidents went unto the President, saying unto him,

"This new Plan will actively promote the growth and vigor of the company with powerful effects."

And the President looked upon the Plan and saw that it was good.

And the Plan became Policy.

And that is how shit happens.
