October 2006

From the Prez,

Yes Oh Yes, it was SOS!

And what a great time everyone had. From the minute Mary and I got to the beach, all we heard was Burlington this and Burlington that. Everyone saying how friendly and fun our members are. Thanks to Rick and Debbie Wolfe for stepping up and making the Tea Party run smooth. Everyone had a great time. Of course, they had several members to help. Thanks guys.

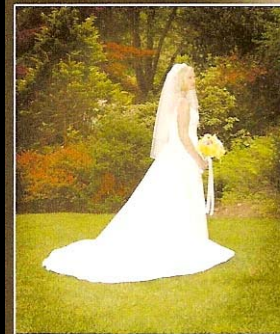

The ACSC Meeting was very informative and the Burlington Shag Club really shined and stood out. We won first place in our category for selling the MOST tickets (357 to be exact). Thanks to everyone who sold and bought tickets. You done it again. Then there was the Dr. Phil Sawyer Foundation Check presentation. You would have been proud. The check was for $1000 and remember this will help further the "shag dance". We also made a presentation to the Jr. Shaggers Association for $500 on behalf of the Burlington Shag Club. This money was from donations from the Summer Workshop hosted by Burlington. This investment in our youth will help ensure that the dance and the music will continue for years to come. Numerous other club officials stopped by and to congratulate our club on all its' accomplishments and for leading the way for others. None of this could have been possible without YOUR hard work and desire. "Together", we make an awesome team. You're the BEST. Thanks to Joan Kimbro for coming up with new ideas and getting everything ready for Fun Monday. An awesome job you done, Joan. Thanks to Peggy Childress for stepping up and taking charge of our Fun Monday Booth. Joan could not be there due to family sickness, but she did not have to worry. Our members always steps up to the plate when needed. Besides Peggy, we had so many members step up and work the Booth and what a great job they did, from David and Polly getting the merchandise transported to the beach, to each and everyone of the members who went into the crowd and sold merchandise. All but 25 shirts were sold. WOW! The Special Olympics Golf Tournament was another success. Chuck, Clint, Denise, Angie, and their team of workers. This tournament was so great, I cannot think of enough to say but the one thing I can say is the passion that you have poured out to support these kids is overwhelming. There is not enough heart felt thanks. All of our hearts were touched with your hard work and dedication to support such a great event.

1. Rick Wolfe opened the meeting at 8:08. Ronnie welcomed all members.
2. Secretary's Report - Currently 212 members. Rosters are available to any member. I usually print three extra for meeting night or I can send it by email or regular mail. Minutes of the August business meeting were published in the September newsletter. There were no changes so minutes stand as printed.
3. Treasury Report - Mary advised the current amount is $14,667.71. A detailed report was given to all members present.
4. Ronnie asked Mary to give us information on the new phone tree purchased for the club. She gave a report of how it works and all the things it can do, such as acknowledging the message was received, a recording received, and whether or not you hung up on it! Phone tree is available to all committees to use. Give information to Mary to be entered.

5. Pam McHone spoke about Iron Gate Vineyards & Winery in Mebane. They donated wine and wine baskets for our summer workshop. She said they had tours and wine tasting events and wondered if members would like to take a club trip to the winery, perhaps on a Saturday afternoon. She got a positive response from members so she and Baxter Sellars will check out the details and advise us at the next business meeting.

6. By-Laws - In Sheila's absence, Rick Wolfe gave a brief update on the discussions. The next meeting for this is Thursday, October 5th. Rick asked members to put that date on their calendar and come to these important meetings.

11. Hall Of Fame - Judy Satterfield said nominations have to be received by October 1st. Please give forms to Judy as soon as possible.

12. Fun Monday ticket sales - Mary reported that our club sold 327 tickets and she appreciated all the effort from the members.

16. Benefit for club member Tammy Allen. Zane Gibbs announced that Tammy is getting only a small amount of insurance money and asked if there is some way we can help her. Ronnie asked that members think about this and bring suggestions to the next meeting. David Tuttle thought that having a party with a DJ Throw down might be something to be considered. Zane will chair this along with Stephanie West who agreed to co-chair.

17. Nominations for officers for 2007. Ronnie reminded us that nominations will be taken at the October business meeting. Members were advised to check with whomever they may want to nominate to be sure they are willing to run.

Phil Sawyer Foundation Presentation

Presented on Saturday, September 23, 2007 at the ACSC/SOS Meeting

Doing our part.....

This was made possible because of all your hard work and support of furthering the dance. This Scholarship is now over $30,000. Once it reaches $100,000, it will stand on its' own. The Scholarship is set up at the University of South Carolina to teach the Shag Dance. The Shag will be a part of their curriculum and will help ensure that the shag will continue to be taught in colleges. By doing this, we honor this pioneer "Dr. Phil Sawyer" who has paved the way for what all of us love – "The Dance and The Music".

Remembering Friends

MEMORIAL FOR KEITH ANDREWS
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 2006

DURING SOS ON A BEAUTIFUL LATE SATURDAY
AFTERNOON AT NORTH MYRTLE BEACH, A MEMORIAL WAS HELD FOR ONE OF OUR
BURLINGTON SHAG CLUB MEMBERS THAT PASSED
ON TO A BETTER WORLD. FOR THOSE OF YOU THAT KNEW KEITH, HE WAS A QUITE MAN BUT HE WAS A LONG TIME LOVER OF THE SHAG, THE MUSIC AND
MOST OF ALL THE FELLOWSHIP WITHIN THE SHAG COMMUNITY.

ABOUT TWENTY FIVE OF HIS FRIENDS GATHERED ON THE BEACH AT THE OCEAN'S EDGE TO REFLECT AND REMEMBER KEITH'S LIFE. REVERAND BEAVER
OFFICATED AT THE CEREMONY AND THEN KEITH'S
BROTHER SPOKE TO EVERYONE ABOUT KEITH AND THANKED ALL OF US FOR ATTENDING. HIS BROTHER
THEN WENT TO THE EDGE OF THE OCEAN AND RELEASED KEITH'S ASHES INTO THE EDGE OF THE
OCEAN, A PLACE THAT WAS CLOSE TO KEITH'S
HEART. EVERYONE WAS QUITE AS THE ASHES BLEW
IN THE WIND AND KEITH WAS GIVEN HIS FINAL RESTING PLACE.

MAY YOU REST IN PEACE KEITH AND WE WILL ALL
SEE YOU AGAIN SOMEDAY.
