December 2006

From the Prez,

Ho, Ho, Ho!

To all my friends and fellow shaggers, Happy Holidays from Mary and myself. I can't believe it is Thanksgiving and Christmas already! Still a lot of things are happening, the Christmas Party is right around the corner (Dec. 16th.) and from all that I have heard it is going to be a winter wonderland. I know you all are planning to come dressed to impress and a lot of great things have been planned for this party at the Moose. We hope you all are planning to come.

Congratulations to our new slate of Officers for 2007, President – Jim West, Vice President – Judy Satterfield, Secretary – Michelle Thomas, and Treasurer – David Satterfield. This year there were a lot of great nominees and this shows that a lot of our members have interest in the leadership of the club. You have spoken, so now let's all support our new 2007 Officers.

It was quite humbling for Mary and myself to be honored into the Burlington Shag Club Hall of Fame. We consider this such a great honor that all of you would consider us in that light. Everything was done and accomplished over the years and the successes that we all shared together, because we all did it together. You can always count on us to represent this club and say positive things about all the good people that make up the Burlington Shag Club. Thank you all for this recognition. I hope you feel as close to us as we do to all of you.

The Christmas Parade is December 2nd. And all the little Elves and Santa will be preparing for this so please come and be a part of this event.

The Bylaws committee is continuing it's work and Sheila has done an admirable job heading it up. This will soon be brought to the membership for a vote. Times and dates will be announced in the near future.

Several of us went to the Danville Area Shag Club Party and what a great time we had. Jerry and Danville members done one terrific job. Thanks to all their members for all the fun and memories, you should be proud of yourself for putting on such a great event.

Meals On Wheels is coming fast. For those of you who want the discount Dance tickets of $20.00, they must be purchased by December 31st. 2006. This year promises to be fun and exciting. We need your help, volunteer your services, you will be hearing more in the very near future.

Wishing you all the very happiest of holidays and thanks to all of you for all your hard work in 2006.

Shaggin', because we love to!

- Club membership renewals for 2007 are being taken now. Please turn in your renewal forms and money to Evelyn.
- Christmas Party - Brenda announced that a special evening has been planned. There will be a shuttle running from the LaQuinta Hotel to the Moose Lodge. - Meals On Wheels Benefit - Members are asked to take advantage of the early ticket purchase, which is $20 before December 31st. See Mary Gregory for tickets. Ronnie advised that the planning meetings are going well. Volunteers are needed for all committees. There will be an envelope stuffing at the First Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, January 2nd and members are asked to help.

Please remember that any time that you have issues concerning your club, your club officers are always available to listen.

This has been an enjoyable year for me to have the privilege of being the editor of our club's newsletter. This is the last issue for 2006. Let me take this time to apologize for the lateness of the last issue, but due to unforeseen circumstances, I could not prepare it as quickly as I had hoped to. I trust that it has not caused anyone problems in making plans for the month of December. Thank you again, the editor.
