May 2007

From the Prez,

Greetings everyone! Well, what can I say, "fifth time in a row". Congratulations to the Burlington Shag Club. We've "definitely" made our mark on Mainstreet! All the excitement and energy from the float participants was phenomenal. We had cows grazing, cookies dancing and leaves bouncing. What a theme! Visit our website to see it all. Thanks to all the participants and supporters from the crowd. A special thanks to Pam McHone and Brenda Smith for pulling it all together. Great job!

And, just around the corner, our Area Shag Club Party Luau which is planned for June 9th from 8:00 – 12:30 at the Moose Lodge. The different groups are geared up for the workshops with only three weeks to go. Come help out that day to decorate. Checkout the flyer on our website for more details. We're expecting a huge crowd this year.

We have three teams supporting Eden's Golf Tournament on Saturday the 5th. Thanks, I'm sure they'll appreciate our attendance.

We're on the final stages of the By-Laws. At our last meeting Sheila asked that everyone read over the by-laws and mark any questions or comments to bring to the final meeting. Meeting date still to be announced. Thanks to Sheila for your hard work, this has been a long process.

Personally, I want to thank everyone for their support so far this year; it's going fast. Please keep being involved.

See you Friday – keep on Shagging!
