A Special Thank You

Thank you, Joan Kimbro, for your many years of dedication and support to the Burlington Shag Club. Joan was our President for several years and during the time when the Burlington Shag Club didn't have a meeting place. As Joan has stated, "The Burlington Shag Club is a part of my life" and it certainly shows from her devotedness. Joan has certainly been a model member that we each could learn from. We owe her a lot! Hopefully, us saying we appreciate you, Joan, for the person that you are, will begin to let you know how grateful we are for you. Thanks for sticking in there!...Gail

Shag Lessons

Jim and Sharon Brown are interested in holding beginner and intermediate shag classes on Monday nights at Master's Tavern. The classes would be for a period of 5 weeks. They need at least 10 people to sign up in order to start a class. If you are interested, call Gail Wright at 584-7707.

SOS Highlights

by Linda Maccia

Well, SOS is over once again. I had a wonderful time and I think some of the other folks from Burlington did too--Bubba & Carol, Zane & Marilyn, Bill & Gail, Pat & Mike, Charlie & Becky, Joan & C.B., Judy & David and many others. Wednesday started the festivities for some of us. I got to play at the O.D. Arcade that night with Merl Augustine (1/2 of the Boo-Woogie Brothers) for about two hours and had a wonderful time. Thursday rolled around and lots more Burlingtonians rolled in--Eric & Joan, Babs, Ginny Layne and somewhere in this maze Autry Barrett and my ever loving Bob appeared. Friday came with some raindrops, but who noticed? We just felt the need to start earlier than usual that day. Ducks was crowded, as usual, but Burlington seemed to have taken over in one area--Shine, Ronnie, Mike, Clyde & Janet, JoAnn and many others were there to have one helluva time. Sometime during the weekend, Lock & Candy, Van & Shirley, Steve McHone & Susan appeared at the O.D. Arcade and were having the most fun. Saturday rolled around and, of course, many attended the pool party at Tilghman's. But, late that afternoon, we had our own pool party across the street at Tilghman's. The main event was Larry Jordan riding a bicycle around the pool trying very hard not to fall in. I was going to ride the handle bars, but after I saw him ride this thing into the water, I changed my mind. Gail was beginning to turn a very sick color and we all just waited to see if he was going to break any limbs or not. Saturday night came and I had the opportunity to play at Crazy Zacks from 10:00 til midnight. I would like to take this opportunity to thank everybody from Burlington and other areas who came to support me. I was scared to death and it certainly made me feel much better to look out and see many familiar faces. I'd like to also thank all of you who have supported me in other clubs when I had the opportunity to play.

Well, it's only October. Maybe we can all rest up for the next SOS in April. See you then!!

BSC Halloween Party

The date of the party has been changed to Friday, the 30th of October. We decided to make the change so as not to conflict with the fireworks at the City Park, etc. We will be giving away door prizes. One door prize will be "Dinner for 2 lunch buffet at Ramada Inn".

THE ASSOCIATION OF CAROLINA SHAG CLUBS MAKES $100,000 COMMITMENT TO HOSPICE

Who says shaggers don't have a serious side.

Members of the Association of Carolina Shag Clubs may be dancing the nights away, but while they're at it, they're making a significant contribution to the community at large.

The association has made a commitment - a $100,000 commitment in the name of all shag club members - to the National Hospice Association. Starting this year and for the next nine years the association will make a $10,000 contribution to an endowment administered by the Foundation of the Carolinas in Charlotte, with revenues generated to benefit the Hospice organization.

About two years ago, members began looking for an organization to support, one that crossed all state lines; benefited men, women and children; wasn't limited to any one disease or age group and was a nationally known organization.

After much research the National Hospice Organization was selected, and on May 2 at the Spring SOS at North Myrtle Beach the first $10,000 was committed to the endowment. A representative of the National Hospice Organization was there for the momentous occasion.

The association has about 9,000 members in some 65 clubs in the Carolinas, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida and Virginia.

And to borrow a phrase from Lou Prima's Gigolo: "We ain't so bad."

The Association of Carolina Shag Clubs Makes $5000 Donation to Hurricane Victims

Friday morning, September 18, during SOS, the Association held a meeting at the O.D. Cafe. Gail Wright and Larry Jordan were there to represent the Burlington Shag Club.

The Association voted to donate $5000 to the South Florida Swing Dance Club of Homestead, Florida whose members were victims of Hurricane Andrew. They have also challenged all member clubs to match their donation with a total of $5000.

Sunshine Report

Linda Maccia underwent eye surgery on both eyes on Monday of last week. She was recuperating at home when I talked to her and getting along OK. Hope to see you up and about soon! It has also come to my attention that Candy Brooks father died on July 5 of leukemia. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Candy.

Is Bush or Clinton the Shag Candidate?

A Pragmatic Strander's Guide to Election '92

by Phil Sawyer

Shaggers and stranders the world over are deeply concerned over the issues involved in Election '92. Ethics, the economy, taxes, the environment, the break-up of the Soviet Union, Saddam, downsizing the military, America's infra-structure, drugs, integrity, abortion, Savings and Loans, education, health care, the deficit, problems of the aging, civil rights, and the homeless are at the forefront of every press conference, campaign speech, and debate among the leading candidates. But let's face it. As important as all of these issues are, and they are important, not one of them is the gut issue of this campaign.

The questions paramount in the minds of shaggers and stranders everywhere is "Where do the candidates stand on beach music and shagging?" You will note that not even the front runners have been brave enough to meet this issue head on. A mistake on a candidate's position on this could be certain death long before the first Tuesday in November. Insiders, however, have compiled a top secret dossier on the projected stand of the probable candidates to be ready for immediate use if necessary*.

Here is a summary of the positions of the major candidates on this important issue.

GEORGE BUSH: Born and raised a Brahmin Bostonian, he has not been to a dance of any kind since the third grade in whatever private grammar school he went to. This is not out of the ordinary because there has not been a dance of any kind in New England since Cotton Mather. He does, however, claim Texas as his state of residence. That is, of course, about as real as Mike Tyson considering holy orders. Not even his most loyal followers can conceive of George Bush doing the Texas two step or George Bush at Bubba and Buck's. Even the Rev. Will B. Dunn cannot think this up.

PAT BUCHANAN: Come on, you gotta be kidding me! He's the kinda guy who comes to the Geechee Blast and spends the entire afternoon doing the twist. Buchanan wouldn't know shag from shinola.

JERRY BROWN: Jerry Brown is California, and California beach boys, swing, and swingle. He is a sport—he has proven that—but then anyone who won't take more than one hundred dollars from people who want to give him more never spent an unemployed summer at the beach. Sorry, Jerry.

BILL CLINTON: Slick Willie and stranders have a lot in common, no one will deny that. He comes from the South, fooled around a little (or maybe a lot, but then, let he who is without guilt...you know the rest). He comes from Arkansas where they probably do more country than beach. They call the hogs at all the football games, but the only water Arkansas touches is the River, and river ain't beach. But then there's Hillary. Now folks, she's a shagger and strander. Even if she ain't, she would be in a minute if circumstances put her there. Bill would look good if it weren't for all that heavy baggage he totes around.

So where does that leave us? Simple: JO JO PUTNAM FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.
