Important Reminders

Lynda Justice

July Business Meeting. Great attendance - we had 32 members at the July Business Meeting. Please continue to come out and bring another member with you.

August Business Meeting. Our August Business Meeting will be on August 16th at 8:00 at the Ramada Inn.

Move to our new old home. Don't forget that on Sept. 20th we will move to our new old home at Best Western. Let's all plan to come out and bring a friend to help make this a big event. Also at this time let's make a commitment to ourselves and the Burlington Shag Club so that we can continue to have a club and a place to enjoy going.

Benefit Golf Tournament. Please don't forget our benefit golf tournament to be held on October 12th. Start getting your foursome together now and let us know, there will be limited slots available and you don't want to be left out as some were for the Spring tournament.

Newsletter. Please help us with articles for the newsletter! I am sure many of you have thoughts that you want to share with the rest of us so please submit them by the third (3rd) Friday of each month so they can be included.

Upcoming Seminars. See list of available seminars inside newsletter.

Sympathies

Our sympathies go out to Fay Welch whose husband, Ray, passed away in July. Fay, you are in our thoughts and prayers.

July Business Meeting Highlights

Dotty Whaley

Candy Wins Award

Candy Brooks just returned from Dance Masters of America National Dance Teachers' Convention at the New York Marriott Marquis - on Broadway right on Times Square. There were 12 instructors from North Carolina. Candy received a 25 Year Service Award. In the past 25 years Candy has held practically every office available. While there, she saw several Broadway plays: Smoky Joe's Cafe which featured songs written by Leiber & Stoller (Dance With Me, Ruby Baby, Kansas City, etc.); Stomp which will be coming to Charlotte in the near future; Bring in the Funk - tap dancing - won 5 Tony awards. She also went to Caroline's Comedy Club where all the Saturday Night Live people get their start. Candy recommends going to see Stomp if you're in New York or Charlotte when it gets there. She also received instruction from some top Broadway instructors.

Sand in my Shoes

We have been asked to put on an exhibit on Sunday, August 25th at the Depot Downtown. They said we could display our banner and to bring flyers about our move to Best Western to pass out. Call Susan Harrell at 538-1122 to sign up. (See flyer enclosed)

Bunk Leach Charity Mixed Doubles Contest July 26-28 at Thirsty's

Martha Mobley

There were 25 couples dancing this weekend. Thirteen danced before they called a break. The other twelve danced after the break. This was my second time dancing in a mixed doubles contest. On Saturday night I drew Jim Brown from Chapel Hill as my partner. We were couple #22 or #23. Great dance! But it sure was a long wait to have my name called. Maybe Sunday will be better. On Sunday, Mike Chamblin (Kernersville, I think) drew my name. That was a good dance, too! We were couple #24. The waiting wore me out.

Carol was called first on Saturday night. Her partner was Tootie Blair from the local area. That was a good dance. On Sunday, her name was the last one to be drawn. The guy who drew her name is David Campbell from N. Myrtle Beach. He's 27, short, and a helluva dancer. I remember seeing him dance in a contest at the old Bushes when he was about 13 years old. This undoubtedly was, in my opinion, the best dance of the whole weekend. I asked Carol for a comment on her first contest. "This was something I've always wanted to do and had never done it. I was intimidated going into this, not only by who the judges were, but by the other dancers. Now that I've done it once, I'm going to keep on dancing in this type of contest. About the dance on Sunday, I can't wait to see it on video because I can't remember anything about except when I saw David wink at me. He was probably asking himself who this old broad was he had for a partner. He'd never seen me before." You should have been there to see this dance. Susan Harrell and Judy Satterfield had tears in their eyes - they were so proud of Carol. I was, too.

Before the contest started Sunday, John English came over and had a lengthy talk with Carol. He was very impressed with her dancing - as we all are - and told her he would like to see her dance SPA. What a compliment. After her dance on Sunday, there were so many who came over to congratulate Carol. They congratulated everyone who danced, but to us Burlingtonians, the spotlight was on Carol.

There were a lot of good dancers entered this time: Rufus Wactor & Wanda Holliday (both Hall of Famers), Linda Carol Flynn, Laura Burdick, Jonnie Tomlinson, Jim & Sharon Brown, Bill & Brenda Barber to name a few. Missing this weekend were Larry & Shirley Jones from Richmond and Candy Brooks who had a wedding to attend.

The judges for the weekend were: Dana Brown (who was replaced by someone else), John English, Charlie Womble, and Leslie Williamson. The winners were as follows:

	Male	Female
1st place	Geoff Burdick	Jo Ann English
2nd place	David Campbell	Linda Carol Flynn
3rd place	Bill Barber	Brenda Barber

ACSC Summer Workshop Southern Pines

Dotty Whaley

Jesse, Lynda, Buddy and I attended the Summer Workshop in Southern Pines. Thanks to Buddy and me we didn't arrive until 11 p.m. Friday night. We did a quick change and caught the first shuttle in sight. Murl had 'em rocking upstairs and Harold Beaver had 'em rocking downstairs. The lodge was packed out and the drinks were simply marvelous. Midnight breakfast buffet. Shuttle back to the motel where we were instructed by the night manager that we were going to have to hold it down and go in our rooms as others were trying to sleep. Can't imagine?

Lynda and I attended the meeting Saturday morning. The bar was open already! Continental breakfast. First item discussed, voted on and passed was to make that meeting and all future meetings NON-SMOKING. Then we adjourned so the SMOKERS could burn one! Just kidding! We elected ACSC officers. No competitors for President, V-President or Secretary. We have a new Treasurer, but I guess I wasn't paying attention because I don't remember his name. We went over some other things but they don't seem very important now so on with the party!

A buffet lunch was served after the meeting. Lynda and I were pretty much at the end of the line. They started clearing the tables and setting up for the evening's entertainment. Good thing we didn't want seconds. Shuttle back to the motel. We catch up with Jesse and Buddy and we're off to Old Town Southern Pines for shopping all afternoon. Back to motel. Shower and change (borrow clothing from Lynda). Dine at the motel (great prime rib) Beeline for the shuttle.

This time Murl's downstairs and Eddie Anderson is upstairs. Guess where we were? Murl had Jim (seen at every SOS, wears a bandanna like a pirate, ear ring in left ear, beard, mesmerizing dancer) and Barry (seen at every SOS, wears wild jogging pants and tennis shoes, tall, beard, snaps fingers while dancing and appears to have a rhythm all his own) do an exhibition dance and don't you know, Buddy and I missed it! Buddy won a door prize and I'm surprised he nor Jesse won the 50/50 as many tickets as they bought. But Buddy probably would have never known because he was so busy adding names to his dance card. Shuttle back to the motel and would you believe it, a motel security guard told us we were going to have to go in our rooms & be quiet.

We had an absolutely wonderful time. The Elk's Lodge & Country Club was one of the best facilities for this kind of event we've ever been to. Hats off to the Moore Area Shag Society, Sanford Society of Shaggers and the Lake Tillery Shag Club.

Thanks For Your Support

Evelyn Turner

Our recent "Meet The Area Shag Clubs" party was a great success. That was largely due to the support of our own members who came and brought guests, but also to members of our neighboring shag clubs. According to our guest register, we had fellow shaggers from clubs in Eden, Raleigh, Winston-Salem, High Point, Roanoke, Danville, Sandhills, Greensboro, Lynchburg, and Durham. Winston-Salem topped the list with 19 in attendance. It was great to have all of our guests here! We hope to have it even bigger and better next year - perhaps with something special planned. Thanks again to all our members and especially to those who helped in the planning and working.

Our Olympic Debut

Susan Harrell

It's Friday morning July 19th. The day is finally here. I didn't sleep much last night, too much to think about I guess. Every time I tried to drift off to sleep, I could hear someone say "Presenting Kevin & Susan Harrell, representing the Burlington Shag Club". Suddenly I was wide awake again. Kevin took Friday off, so he slept in a while longer; but I had to work until 12:00. Around 9:45 I got so excited thinking about what was about to take place, that I called my personnel director and begged her to let me leave now! By 10:00 a.m. I was heading home. Kevin was waiting and we packed up and hit the road. We drove down to Greenville, SC in record time I believe. We checked into the Marriott around 2:00 p.m. and walked out the front entrance and in pulled Danny & Vicky Chambers (our dance teachers). They were going to represent the Greater Triad Shag Club from Thirsty's. After taking our bags to the room, we all went shopping for a few hours to buy the things we discovered we had left at home. We had supper at Ruby Tuesday's and it was "off to the races" after that! The Greenville Shag Club put on a great party Friday night "Meet Me in the Middle". We met dancers from Virginia, Tennessee, North & South Carolina and a few from Georgia came up to party. We all decided to make it a short evening, but it didn't turn out that way. Hootie & the Blowfish were also staying there, so Kevin & I decided around 12:30 a.m. to sneak some pictures of them as they loaded their bus. They were also on their way to the Olympics. It was approximately 2:30 a.m. when we turned in.

It's Saturday morning and everyone is in the lobby deciding on breakfast - we decided on Cracker Barrel. The trip to Atlanta was long. Traffic was heavy, but not as bad as we had anticipated. We found our host's house without any problems. We stayed with Ann Blake. She was working so we went on to her boyfriend Roy's house. He had 3 couples staying at his house and they were all there waiting for us to arrive. Ann & Roy catered to our every need all weekend. We couldn't have stayed with anyone nicer than they were. There was going to be a party at Brenda Rice's house Saturday night, so we went back to Ann's to dress. With camera and camcorder in hand, off to party we go. There was about 40 people there - everyone very excited about tomorrow. It was a covered dish supper supplied by ShagAtlanta club. So much food and not enough room to sample all of it! We danced on the deck, took pictures of each other, ate supper and talked about our adventures we had getting there. It was an early evening for a change. Turning in around 1:00 a.m.! We really didn't sleep much Saturday night - tomorrow is the big day.

It's Sunday morning. We met at Roy's about 8:00 a.m. He cooked breakfast for us - all 10 of us and all by himself too! Eggs, bacon, sausage, cantaloupe, peaches and home-made biscuits. It was great! We had to be on the bus at 10:00 a.m. to go to the Marta Train Station. We rode Marta to downtown Atlanta. That was an adventure. Some people we could understand, some - no way! Finally, we walked through the gates of Olympic Centennial Park. All representatives met at the food arena. We were running around trying to see as much as we could before our time to dance. Kevin should have kept me away from the Olympic Superstore. How we will make our next house payment now is still up in the air. The square dancers were almost finished, so we all knew we were next. Boy, was that nerve wracking just thinking about it. First it was the Hall of Famers. They all lived up to that title, too! They were wonderful. We saw some steps that were unreal. Then it was the cream of the crops turn. That's what he called us. Each state danced - one state at a time. There were 42 clubs total representing the ACSC, 22 of which were from North Carolina (we had the most clubs there - 22). They had to split us up into 2 groups of 11. Being out there dancing in front of all those people gave us mixed feelings. We were scared to death, but at the same time, thrilled and honored to be there. The first time ever in the history of the Olympics to dance the shag - not for the gold, but for the preservation of the dance. One is just as good as the other to me. I can live without the gold, but I'm not so sure about the shagging. The song we danced to was Kansas City. It was probably the shortest dance we have ever done, but I can honestly say it will be the most memorable dance of our lives.

Kevin & I want to thank you all for giving us this opportunity and memories that will never be forgotten. We hope we represented you well and made you as proud of us as we were proud to represent the Burlington Shag Club. Many many thanks, Susan & Kevin Harrell
