Meals On Wheels Benefit IV

Well folks, it was a success again!! We made $14,800 for the benefit of Alamance County Meals On Wheels. Now that's a bunch of meals! Thanks to all the wonderful help and commitment, we have another occasion of which to be very proud. It still seems unreal sometimes to think that we (so few) can do such fine work when we put our minds to it. I have heard nothing but positive comments about the evening and truly hope that everyone had a wonderful time.

I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank everyone for their valuable help. No matter how small the job seemed at the time, believe me all help is needed and appreciated. Thank you all so much!!!

March Business Meeting

We will hold our business meeting on March 21st at 8:00 pm at Time Out Lounge. Please join us.

Jackpot Drawing

Debbie Wall won $150 at the February meeting - that is if she had been present. If I am not mistaken, this is the second time her name has been drawn. I guess she and Charlie are going for a record. Be at the next meeting when the jackpot will be $175.

Golf Tournaments

Steve McHone has begun making arrangements for our golf outings and the dates have been set. So please mark your calendars for May 10th for the Spring "Fun" Tournament and October 11th for the Fall "Benefit" Tournament.

S.O.S. Parade

There will be a SOS parade on Saturday, April 19th, beginning at 2:00 pm.

Piedmont Party Shaggers

Our next party will be at the dome with the Eno Beach Shag Club on March 15th. Please come out and join us for a fun time. I understand that parking may be a problem so if you can carpool, please do. Do not park next door in the liquor store parking lot (I understand that is a no-no). You can park in the parking lot directly across the street from the Dome. See you there!

Also, plans are being made for the April party at SOS. Right now it looks like this party will be held on Friday, April 18th from 1:00 until 5:00 pm at the Barrel (formerly the Pad - across the street from the Boulevard Grill). I will let you know more as soon as I hear.

Minutes Of The February Business Meeting Dotty Whaley

1. Treasurer Report - current balance $2,296.91
2. Jackpot drawing ($150) - Winner, Debbie Wall - not present, March's jackpot goes to $175.
3. Thirty-six members were in attendance.
4. Piedmont Party Shaggers next event at Eno Beach Shag Club in Durham on March 15.
5. Al Fogleman reported receiving a $1,000 donation from the DJ Association for the Joe Pope Love Offering.
6. BSC current membership is up to 161. Thanks to Bob Maccia for contacting previous members.

To: Burlington Shag Club

From: Joe and Barbara Pope

Joe and I would like to thank each and everyone that has given us the support to have made it through all that has taken place in our lives over the past six months. Trying to put our thoughts, thanks, and praises on paper is harder than we thought; recently we came across a poem that puts this all in perspective of how we feel. We would like to share this with you.

FRIENDSHIP IS A BLESSING

It's the best you have to share

The talents and the wisdom,

The capacity to care,

It's being there to lend support,

Whatever needs arise,

It's making sure that others know

They're special in your eyes...

Friendship is a blessing,

And to all who have a friend,

It's one of the most precious gifts

That life could ever send.

You are very special to us. You have given friendship a meaning that's all your own. Of all the blessings that life has sent us, none could make us happier than knowing that all of you are our friends. We know that your support continues, some days we move forward and some backwards, but we hope and pray that we will be out with you soon.

With our loving thoughts and prayer,
Joe and Barbara, Jake and Josh

It was time for the Lake Hickory Shag Club to have their annual "Winter Boogie" event and several members of our club decided to go. Bob & I, George & Vickie Lewis, Jim & Marlene Phipps, Fritz & Jo Ann Eckhardt, and Buddy & Dotty Whaley met on Saturday morning at Suzi's Diner for breakfast. We left there and got to the Holiday Inn about 12 noon, just in time to start the party!

The afternoon party was great, as all afternoon parties are. We had our "liquid sunshine", some snacks, more "liquid sunshine", danced a lot, had more "liquid sunshine" and danced some more. Our group expanded by two more in the afternoon, Mike Edge and Edna Dillard. The fashion show started at 4:00 and it was really funny. Some of the "celebrities" from the last nine years were there modeling. Elvis showed up and he was definitely "a-hunk-a-hunk of burnin' love". Harold Beaver looked especially good in his long t-shirt and black drawers!

We finally decided it could be dangerous for us to walk across the street to a restaurant, so we went to the buffet at the Holiday Inn and drove our waitress a little nuts. Seems that someone wanted ice cream to eat with their peach cobbler. Then all of a sudden, several of us had ice cream. I personally think dinner that night was a bit of a blur!!! Off we went to our respective rooms to take a "nap" and get ready for the evening party.

Some of us just rested and some of us slept for about 4 hours or so, didn't we Buddy? And some of us had a little time to sober up, didn't we Jim? We got back downstairs about 9:00 or so and who do you think showed up? Rick & Evelyn Turner and Susan & Kevin Harrell. What a nice surprise!! We danced more and met new people (I'll never remember any of their names) and had a great time. Lawrence & Betty Lintz, who live in Madison, but are members of our club were also there. There was a "midnight snack" which consisted of ham biscuits and donuts; by then everyone was ready to eat again. Ask Bob what he was offered in exchange for two ham biscuits!!!!

Sunday morning at our breakfast buffet, we were all kind of blurry-eyed and sleepy, but as usual, hungry! Some of us were slower than others and some of us had red eyes---Rick Turner will definitely win that prize! I think a road map was actually clearer!!

We left after breakfast, but the rest of the gang stayed for a while. I understand the afternoon was fun, and the Lake Hickory Shag Club raised around $5500 for Camp Kemo. Our club was very well represented with 18 members there and we were pleased we could contribute in some way to their benefit.

We now have Burlington Shag Club business cards which are available to all members. When you are visiting other club events or talking with someone who is interested in the club, please give them one of our cards. Put your name and phone number on the back of the cards so you can be contacted for more information. If you have not gotten any cards yet, please see me. Thanks. ET

Meals-On-Wheels Silent Auction

Carol Oakley, Chairman

A special thank you to Dickie McAdams, Joan Kimbro, Gail Jordan, Susan Harrell, and Bob Maccia. You stepped in and made a tremendous effort in picking up items and making calls to solicit for new gifts. Dickie's wife got very ill and was in the hospital, and he got held up, and then I got sick and was in bed for a week which slowed me down; however, everyone pitched in and helped us out. You don't know how much I appreciate what you did for me. I just can't thank you enough, but being on the Board of Directors for Meals-On-Wheels, we appreciate your taking time out of a busy schedule to help a worthy cause. The auction was a great success, raising $4,413.50.

ACSC Winter Workshop - Charleston, SC

Buddy Whaley

When Rick and Evelyn go on a road trip, they don't mess around. Rumor is Rick woke Evelyn up at daybreak and said "let's go to Charleston". Now Rick, why were you in such a hurry? Was it the Natural Lights waiting on you or was it the thrill of dancing with all those women? So Evelyn did what a good wife should do and packed the suitcases, loaded the car (Rick might have helped, we're not sure) and drove to Charleston by Rick's directions, better know as the "long way".

Meanwhile, some of us slower people: Lynda, Jesse, Dotty, and I got up somewhat later, had breakfast, and followed Buddy's directions, better know as the "short way".

The trip was really enjoyable except Jesse kept asking Lynda if she packed his shoes. Now I wonder why he was worried about that. We arrived in Charleston about 1:00 pm. However, we rode around about an hour or so while Lynda got her bearings. YES, Lynda, YOU did get us there.

When we arrived it was just like it should be. You run get a drink and start dancing and it's still daylight outside. It's kinda like skipping work instead of skipping school. As the evening progressed, we met up with the crowd from Danville and I do mean a crowd. They had about 16 or 18 people there. It goes without saying we had a party.

Rick, Jesse, and I decided that on every road trip, someone would do something to irritate someone else. Not intentionally, but it would just happen and this would in turn, earn them the "Dog House" award as pictured at the heading of this article. Rick and I decided that the recipient is definitely, paws down, Jesse. It has something to do with telling Lynda what he's gonna do. Like, I'm gonna dance with that woman over there in the white blouse. Congratulations Jesse. Personally, I thought Rick was running a real close second.

Saturday morning started off with the ACSC meeting that Lynda, Dotty, and I attended. I'm not going into details about the meeting. Fact is I don't think I can remember much of it. I'm sure Lynda will cover that stuff at our next meeting.

After the meeting, we went back to the motel and laid out a spread of Dotty's homemade chicken salad, crackers, cashews, cheeses, chips and dip. Next time Lynda, I'll make sure we have some loaf bread so we can have a real sandwich.

Now it is time to go to the straw market. I thought it would be fun, but what do I know? After about 5 minutes of the place, Jesse and I decided we should have stayed back at the motel (not really). It was fun, particularly the tour down Rainbow Row. I almost forgot, Dotty had to have a shell or a rock. This time she settled on rocks that she and Lynda stole from the U.S. Customs grounds. Isn't that a federal offense? After our downtown trip, it was time for time-out. And it was definitely needed.

We all met back at the ballroom for the Saturday night bash which was great. It started off with dinner, then the Hall of Famers danced and Ron Aery followed up with his as usual butt rocking music. Then about midnight they served sausage and ham biscuits and sweet rolls. I'm having a hard time remembering much past 12:00 a.m. so let's just go on to Sunday morning.

Not a lot to talk about other than packing up and heading home. Bummer!! I had to turn the radio up to drown out all the snoring.

This article has been a little long winded and maybe boring, but let me reassure you, there wasn't a boring minute in Charleston!!

Party Shagging At The Dome

It's time for the Piedmont Party Shaggers to carry their party to The Dome in Durham. On Saturday, March 15, the Eno Beach Shag Club will host the second party of this area of shag clubs. Let's show our support and have a big crowd from Burlington to attend. Remember, we want them all to come to our party on June 14, so let's try to fill the Dome. To get there, take Guess Road exit off I-85, turn left, go maybe a mile, and it is on the right.

Success Once Again !!
Meals-On-Wheels Benefit Dance
Evelyn Turner

For the fourth year, and after eleven months of planning, the Burlington Shag Club has put on one of the biggest charity events in Alamance County. Everyone there seemed to have a wonderful time. Many thanks go to our most generous sponsors, to donors of silent auction items, to our DJs and the band, to our exhibition dancers, to members of the Meals On Wheels committee, and to all those shag club members who put in so many hours planning and working down to the last minute.

There were party people from many cities in North Carolina, and also from Virginia and South Carolina. Approximately 450 guests filled the ballroom and DJ room and even those who don't know how to shag were having a great time doing their own dancing. The rooms had a red and white Valentine theme thanks to Susan Harrell, Decorations Chairman. To start the evening off, those who were dining enjoyed their meal while listening to the music played by Gerry Holland. Our other DJs, Murl Augustine and Roy Childress, were already playing in the Duke/Carolina/State room. At 9:00 the Part Time Party Time Band took the stage and the ballroom festivities began. The music in both rooms was great all night.

Silent Auction bidders were having a hard time getting in a lot of dancing since they had to keep a check on their bid sheets. There were several "bidding wars" going on again this year, but at the close of bidding and the tallying of sheets, $4,600 was raised. Carol Oakley did a fantastic job as chairman of the Silent Auction and had some hard workers on her committee. Please see Carol's article elsewhere in this newsletter.

We asked the band to take their break at 10:15 in order to put on the exhibition dancers and show off some really show-stopping shagging. We appreciate Wade Adler making the arrangements for the exhibition dancers, all of whom were great. Donations thrown to the floor amounted to $430. Just prior to the exhibition, Al Fogleman, Chairman of the Benefit Committee, recognized the shag club members who dedicated so many hours of their time to this cause, and also Margaret Paulson, Director of Meals On Wheels.

As the guests were leaving, many of them came to us and told us what a wonderful time they had and how much they were looking forward to next year. Three members of the Part Time Party Time Band told me they were honored to play for this event and some of them even got in on the silent auction bidding. Murl Augustine also expressed what a great time he had.

The benefit was a huge success, raising a total to date of $14,800. I would like to thank the following members for all the work they did on this huge event: Lynda & Jesse Justice, Susan & Kevin Harrell, Carol & David Oakley, Buddy & Dotty Whaley, George & Vickie Lewis, Roy & Peggy Childress, Bob Maccia, Martha Mobley, Jonnie Ellington, Larry & Gail Jordan, Dickie McAdams, Joan Kimbro, Steve McHone, Rick Turner, and Al & Cookie Fogleman. Thanks also to the many members who volunteered for door duty. Without the support of all our members, putting on an event like this would not be possible. We feel that we have one of the best shag clubs in the state and the success of this benefit makes us all feel so very proud.

Fritz Eckhardt recently had surgery. We are sure glad to see him already out and about. Hope you continue to do well.

Mike Watson had back surgery the second week of February. Get well soon so we can see you back on that dance floor.

Our sympathies to Barbara Gillespie on the death of her mother in February.

Mixed Doubles Dance Competition
Carol Oakley

It was fun once again to dance in the Bunk Leach Charity Mixed Doubles held February 1st and 2nd at Thirsty's in Greensboro. Martha Mobley and Loretta Lee also danced as we represented our Burlington Shag Club. I felt I had two fairly good dances, my Sunday dance being the best. It was a great weekend, and I met and danced with lots of new people. I would like to thank the following people from Burlington who attended and gave us lots of support: Judy & David Satterfield, Joanne Mangum, Ann Capps, Beth & Eddie Canada, Shirley Pettigrew, Pat & Ed Mahan, Dianne Hill, and Jonnie Ellington. Their support and just being there rooting for us gave us lots of encouragement and made it fun for us to dance. I'm looking forward to the July competition and hopefully it will be an even greater event. Winners were: First Place - Terry Cox & Sam West. Second Place - Gail Simpson & Cadillac "Jack" Smith. Third Place - Mary Lynn Greene & Bob Myrick.
