Comments & Important Reminders

Lynda Justice, President

Business Meeting

Well gang, we had another great meeting in April. Your participation makes it so much nicer. I didn't see too many new faces at the meeting, so I again ask you to call up a member that hasn't been out lately and bring him/her with you to the meeting. Also, please stay for the social part of the evening after the meeting. Some of you are coming for the meeting (for which I appreciate very much), but are not staying for the evening. We need to have everyone participate in the Friday night social so that we can live up to the obligation we made when we moved to the Time Out Lounge. Let's begin now to make an effort to build our Friday attendance.

The May business meeting will be held on May 16th.

Jackpot Drawing

Joan Stewart would have been $200 richer if only she had been at the meeting. Sorry Joan. Better luck next meeting to some fortunate member when the jackpot will be $225.

ACSC 1999 Summer Workshop

A bid was entered at the SOS ACSC meeting on April 19th by the Danville Shag Club on behalf of the Danville and Burlington Shag Clubs. So I guess we had better get going! Ours was the only bid submitted and therefore they will be accepting bids again at the 1997 Summer Workshop in Charlotte. More as it develops.

Golf Tournament

Don't forget your golf tournament on May 10th. I am sure we still need volunteers to help with the various duties of putting on this tournament. Please sign up to play and/or help. Call Steve McHone at 226-8140 to sign up.

Piedmont Party Shaggers

If you missed the party at the Barrel on Friday the 18th, you really missed a great time. There was a great crowd and we partied hard for about four hours. But don't fret, you are in luck - another party is just around the corner. Plan to go to Danville on May 10th for the next Piedmont Party Shaggers event.

Also make plans to attend when your club hosts the party on June 14th.

SOS Company Store

As I mentioned at the last meeting, SOS now has a store called the Company Store at O.D. This spring location was only temporary and in the future will be located on Main Street across from Ducks. This is the first time for this store and they had a limited amount of items, but growth plans are already in the works, so please support this effort. This will be the place to get all your official SOS items, report lost and/or check for lost membership cards, leave messages on the bulletin board for lost friends or upcoming events, etc. And if necessary, possibly get your memberships there in the future. It will be manned by volunteers from the ACSC shag clubs. Buddy, Dotty, and I worked for a few hours on Saturday and had a great time meeting and socializing with all the folks who came in. We plan on doing it again in the Fall and if you have an hour to spare, volunteer; I am sure you will enjoy it also.

Minutes Of The April Business Meeting

April 11, 1997

Evelyn Turner

1. Treasurer Report - current balance $3,256.97.
2. Jackpot drawing ($200) - Winner - Joan Stewart, not present, May's jackpot goes to $225.
3. Thirty-two members were in attendance.
4. SOS official items to be sold at "Company Store". There will be a permanent location. Members are encouraged to buy "official" SOS items there.
5. Our May 10th "fun" golf tournament cut-off is Thursday, May 8th. Steve McHone needs to advise the course pro of number of teams.
6. Meeting Jackpot suggestions: There were so many suggestions made that it was decided to have them all put in writing so they could be discussed. Fritz Eckhardt is the "collection point" for these suggestions. If you would like to offer anything, please get it to Fritz before the next meeting.
7. Suggestion was made to put a shag club advertisement in the newspaper and/or on radio in order to help boost the attendance on Friday nights. George Lewis volunteered to check on advertising rates.
8. It was also suggested the phone committee could help by calling members we don't usually see on Friday nights and encourage them to come out.
9. For area parties, Martha Mobley suggested members could carpool. Anyone interested in carpooling should contact Martha.
10. Bid for 1999 Summer Workshop will be presented at meeting during SOS. This workshop would be a combined effort of our club and Danville Shag Club.
11. Next meeting - May 16th.

"Beach Beat"

For those of you who haven't heard it yet, WBAG 1150AM Radio now has "Beach Beat" on Saturday afternoons from noon to 3:00, hosted by Pat Bell. They also have beach and shag music every weekday afternoon from 3:00 to 6:00. It sure is good to have a radio station in our area playing all those good beach and shag songs we love to listen to. Go ahead, tune 'em in.

"Meet The Area Shag Clubs" Party

Evelyn Turner

Well, it's our turn to host, not just the Piedmont Party Shaggers event, but also our third annual "Meet The Area Shag Clubs" party. We are inviting quite a lot shag clubs to come and join us and we sure would love to see members from each of these clubs at our party. If you have read the flyer in the April and this current newsletter, you will notice several things listed.

First, we will have our party at the Elk's Lodge. Some of the comments about the other parties were the locations were too small for the number of people and there was limited dance space. The Elk's Lodge has a capacity to seat 200 people, so we should be okay for space. Everybody knows that shaggers seldom sit down anyway!

Second, since this is being held at a private establishment, we can bring our own food and beverages and not be limited to items available from a banquet facility. You can bring your own beverages, but we will also have a limited bar and set-ups available. The limited bar will be beer and wine coolers only and these will be sold for a small amount.

Third, we are charging $3 per person which is what our admission was for last year's party.

Now we need your help. We need volunteers to bring party foods and sign up for door duty and bartending duties. Door duty will be in half-hour slots, as will bartending. Remember, you will only be selling bottles of beer or wine coolers; you will not be mixing drinks.

We have a great DJ coming in and special things planned for the evening. I know you will not want to miss it!

Please let me know if you can help in any way with our party and I will put you on the list. We have a fantastic club and everyone is always willing to help; sure hope we can rely on you now. With the support of our club members, we can have one great party as we have had the last two years. Thanks.

Club member Nita Wilson fell and broke her ankle in three places on April 3rd. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Words Of Wisdom From A Wise Lady

During SOS, Ralph and Sandy Johnson and Rick and I had an opportunity to talk with Hall of Fame member Ellen Taylor. She is a most gracious lady and very much a kidder too (just ask Ralph about that!). The subject came up of some shaggers not dancing with others because they were intimidated by them. Ellen was most emphatic about never refusing a dance, or asking someone to dance, because of intimidation. She said if you let someone intimidate you, you are only giving them power over you that they did not have. She said you should take charge and let them know how much in control you are. Ellen said the more different partners you dance with, the more comfortable you will be around any dancer. I asked her if I could put her words of wisdom in our newsletter and she answered with a definite yes. If you ever have the opportunity to speak or dance with Ellen, do not pass it by. You will be enriched by her wonderful personality. ET

Road Trip Of Another Kind or "Shaggers To The Race"

Lynda Justice

On a rainy Saturday morning, April 12th, Rick, Evelyn, Jesse, and I started out to Bristol for the races. We were a bit disappointed that it was raining, but just so happy to even have these coveted tickets. And of course, since we had two expert weatherpersons in the car with us, Rick and I were very optimistic. Evelyn said the clouds were breaking up and Jesse assured us that it would stop raining by lunch time. Anyway, Bristol must be in a totally different time zone, because my watch said 4:00 when it completely stopped. Our patience (regardless of what some may call it) was rewarded and we finally got to see the Busch race (2 hours late) and had a great day even if it did continue to sprinkle off and on. The race over and off we go to Boone for the night. Evelyn was doing great until we started up the mountains. We had only gone a few miles and she wanted to know how much farther we had to go. From that point things only got worse for her. But finally, after a stop for upchuck, we made it to Boone. Don't bother to ask her what she saw on the trip because she saw only the inside of her eyelids and the bathroom. Needless to say, we did not go out to party that night - all that some could manage was dinner and to bed.

Sunday, up early and off to Bristol for the Winston race, but for Evelyn's sake, via a different route. Do you know how hard it is to find a road without hills and curves in the mountains? Time for a quick stop for a bucket of chicken and we are all set. Boy was it cold, but at least it was not raining. Some thought that it would warm up so they started off in shorts, by the time we left the car for the track we all had on all the clothes that we could find and traded shorts for jeans.

All in all, we had a great time even with the rain and cold weather and look forward to doing it again in August. It's amazing what you can find out on a roadtrip - Evelyn does a great goat impression. After fighting crowds, traffic, and even snow, we finally made it home - at last. Oh Lord, just think, next week we have to go to SOS!!!

Keith Thompson suffered quite a serious stroke during the week of April 14 and is currently in Moses Cone Rehab (room 4035). Linda said he is making progress slowly, but surely. Our thoughts are with Keith and Linda. Keith, we hope you will be feeling well again soon.

Spring SOS - My Version

George Lewis

Well, another SOS has come and gone and we are left with a lot of fond memories. I knew it was going to be a wild time when Rick Turner called us Wednesday wanting us to come down early. He said he flew into dancing about noon and was having a large time. Of course, we had to turn down the invitation because Vickie was still ironing her whole wardrobe.

We got to the beach about 12:30 Thursday and decided we needed a few lemon drops to get us started. We (Bob & Linda, Jim & Marlene, and Vickie & myself) then headed up town to see what was going on. There was a smoothies contest going on at the Arcade, so we checked out a few of the other clubs. Later we went to Santa Fe Station for happy hour and got pretty happy! That night we went to hear Murl at the Arcade where we ran into Buddy and Dotty, Roy and Peggy, Rick and Evelyn, Ralph and Sandy, and David and Carol. Bob and Linda tore up the dance floor that night. The rest of us didn't do too bad either. The short walk back to the condo was very long. I sure was glad Bubba came along to help.

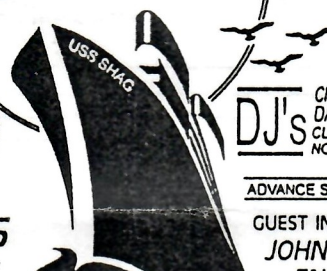

The weather wasn't good Friday so we went shopping. While the guys went to some golf shops, the ladies went on their annual trip to the shoe store. There they ran into part of the Burlington Shag Club, Lynda and Jesse, Buddy and Dotty, and David and Carol (can't wait to see all those new shoes). That afternoon was the (private?) party at the Barrel. When we got here, Jesse was in rare form, dancing with all the women and sweating like crazy. Carol Oakley announced it was going to be her day and began to partake of the spirits. I tried to slow her down, but she didn't listen (like most women). I understand she was a little hung over the next day. Back at the Arcade that night we all flew into dancing again. Of course Rick was kicking a little higher than most of us since he is so much younger (39). We also saw Kirk and Linda, Fritz and Jo Ann, Marilyn, Steve (Barney) and Pam, Jim and Cathy, and Ralph and Sandy. About 2:30 we started that long walk back to the condo.

Saturday, Barney came by early with one of his good jokes (Mississippi wind chimes) to get us started. Jo Ann really liked the one about Budweiser. Pam was upset because Jo Ann was cooking lobster for their dinner and she couldn't stand to hear the clawing inside the pot. That night we went to the Boulevard Grill and we all danced a lot. Well most of us did anyway. Seems Rick, the young one (39) of the group was having a little back trouble and didn't cut up much. Evelyn said he drank so much beer that his kidneys couldn't carry all the weight (imagine that!). Bob and Glenda White finally made an appearance that night.

Sunday we meet at the Boulevard Grill for the gospel hour. There were quite a few Burlington shaggers there.

Bubba and Kirk showed up with their brides. We also saw Buddy and Dotty, Lynda and Jesse, Fritz and Jo Ann, and David and Carol. This was a nice way to finish off a great weekend, with friends and gospel music. Vickie made a new friend there. Her name was Bonnie and she was really enjoying the music. A lot of people came to talk to her and give her a hug. As we were leaving, she told Vickie that she has cancer and only two months to live. Needless to say, this brought tears to our eyes and brought us back to reality. Remember, you only have one life to live. Live it and enjoy it! See you in the Fall.

BEACH MUSIC DAY IN NORTH CAROLINA
 FRIDAY, MAY 23, 1997

Beach music was born in the Carolinas. From the dance clubs to beach parties across the state, the sounds of music like the Tams, the Platters, the Drifters, the Temptations, the Four Tops, Lou Rawls, Jerry Butler, Mary Wells, Martha Reeves and the Vandellas, Aretha Franklin, and many others have become internationally popular.

North Carolinians can be proud to have been the forerunners of groups who have written and recorded beach music. It has been proclaimed by the State of North Carolina and the Mayor of Raleigh, Tom Fetzter that we proclaim May 23, 1997, as "Beach Music Day" and we urge our citizens to support the music made famous here in our state. We salute many groups for their contributions including the Band of Oz; Billy Scott; the Breeze Band; the Catalinas; the Chairman of the Board; the Clovers, Coastline, the Drifters, Terri Gore; the Embers; the Entertainers; the Kays; the Shakers; and Maurice Williams and the Zodiacs.

To commemorate the outstanding excellence of performers, Beach Music Day will be held at Red's Beach Music Club, 4400 Craftsman Drive, Raleigh, North Carolina, on Friday, May 23rd, and will continue on Saturday and Sunday with an entire weekend of the greatest entertainment born in the Carolinas. The doors will be open to the public at 6:00 pm to begin our beach music giveaway and sponsorships recognition. The Embers will be performing along with the Band of Oz throughout the weekend. A host of other artists will be sharing their talents on stage for this very special event.

On Saturday, May 24th, special tribute will be given to some of the late great musicians who were forerunners to so many others styles and we will honor their contributions made to this industry such as Jackie Wilson, Sam Cooke, Marvin Gaye, David Ruffin, Eddie Kendricks, Mary Wilson, Billie Holiday, Toni Williams of the Platters, and Joe Pope of the Tams. Randy Slung, DJ of Red's Beach Music Club will also be hand playing your favorite request for this honorable occasion and celebration.

On Sunday, May 25th, we will be hosting a grand finale featuring two great performing artists and one of eastern North Carolinas top performing tap dancing groups the "Rockette Topcats". Join us outside on Sunday afternoon also for our beach deck party featuring the Band of Oz. We look forward to you being here. We will be acknowledging our host, Mr. Red Hughes and our honorable Mayor, Tom Fetzter, for their efforts to promote the music made famous in the Carolinas.

Musical dreams continue to inspire those who believe. Like the beckoning of the sea, we are all called to belong to the family of God. Listen to His beach music. It is with pride and pleasure that we listen to those whose dreams continue to be inspired by others. Listen to their... beach music!

We invite you to come and we look forward to you joining us on May 23, 1997.
