WHAT: S.O.S. FUN MONDAY
WHEN: SEPTEMBER 8, 1997
WHERE: MAIN STREET, between
Hillside Drive and Ocean Blvd.
TIME: 10:00 AM - 5:00 PM

It's almost here - can you stand it?!! We are getting so excited and hope that all of you out there are too. As stated before, this is the first Fun Monday and we want everyone to be a part of the festivities. We encourage you to make plans now so you want miss this first time event.

For those of you who are just now finding out about this, let me explain briefly what Fun Monday is and what we have planned. The streets will be blocked off between Hillside Drive and Ocean Blvd. all day with DJ's, blue festival, street vendors and a male beauty contest. I have outlined below a tentative schedule and what we need you to do if you wish to participate.

Vendors - The merchants on Main Street are being asked to participate in setting up merchandise on the sidewalk and any shag club who wishes to set up a table, booth, grill, or whatever is encouraged to join in. This is a great way to advertise your parties, sell your club's shirts, etc. and anyone with cooking talents can set up a food booth. You must contact me as soon as possible (Judy Major (803) 821-7120) to reserve your space.)

"Womanless" Beauty Contest - This is open to all males who want to strut their stuff and show off your best side - the woman in all of us!! This is swimsuit only. We are taking applications now. Please contact me on this as soon as possible.

$15,000 Reverse Raffle - All shag clubs have tickets to sell for this jackpot so please check with your rep to purchase any. The First Prize is $10,000!!! You do not have to be present to win and tickets can be sold to anyone - not just shaggers. Anyone selling 10 tickets, gets a free one for each 10 sold! Since the last ticket drawn is the winner, the first one drawn will win $200, the person who sold the winning ticket gets $200 and random drawings of $50 will be held throughout for a total of $5000 in extra winnings!!

Let me know if you wish to purchase tickets or need some to sell or you can contact Dwayne Baggett at (910) 567-2794 or Bill Brown at (901) 321-6197. Ticket sales will cease at Midnight, September 7.

Another Road Trip - ACSC Summer Workshop

Rick Turner

Here we go again! The Burlington Shag Club traveling troupe (12 of us this time) convened in Charlotte for the '97 ACSC Summer Workshop. This event was held in the Oasis Shrine Temple and it was a beautiful place, and so big that you would never have thought there were about 400 people there. Well, so much for formalities, as Paul Harvey would say, "Now for the rest of the story".

George & Vickie Lewis and Evelyn and I get to the hotel around 3:00 pm, check in, and head to the Shrine Temple to get an agenda. Registration is at 7:00 pm so we have time for a late lunch and, of course, a trip to the ABC store. At 7:00 we make our way to the festivities, find a table big enough for all in our group, and Evelyn and I hit the floor for the first dance. Jesse & Lynda and Buddy & Dotty roll in around 9:00 and Mike & Edna arrive shortly thereafter. Now, the rest of us guys just don't understand this, but it probably wasn't 15 minutes after Buddy and Dotty got there, that some woman asked Buddy to dance (Dotty checked the list!) When they came off the floor, the woman said "he dances as smooth as silk". Well, now he has a new name, "Silky".

Set-ups, special liquid sunshine, and Coors Light were provided the entire weekend. Jesse enjoyed the free Coors Light on Friday night, maybe too much. Since Lynda and Dotty went to the association meeting Saturday morning, I called Jesse about 9:30 to see if he wanted to join the rest of us for breakfast. He said "I got a big head this morning, Buck, I don't feel too good". Now he has a new name, "Buck". I asked him what Buddy's room number was and he told me 441. I called 441 and Jesse answered again. He didn't believe that was his own room, so he had to put the phone down, go and open the door, and look at the number. Can you imagine that sight if you had been walking down the hall?!? I called Buddy and they both joined us for breakfast. When we finished, Jesse said he was going back to the room and lay down, hoping his head would shrink some.

The rest of us headed to poolside to kill some time. Here comes Fritz and Jo Ann, arriving around 10:30. They check in and change to their swimsuits and join us at the pool. Fritz decides to cool off in the pool and, well you know Fritz, he is going to start talking to someone. This time it happens to be three women. Before long, his harem grows, as two more women join in. So much for the relaxing, it's time to change clothes and head over for the shag workshop at 2:00. At 3:00 the music starts again and we get another table right at the dance floor. It's now 3:30 and Jesse is sitting at the end of the long table all by himself. Is he in time-out already? There were several vendors there and Jo Ann spotted a white nightie she liked (a top, a bottom, and a captain's hat to match, but the hat had more material in it than the other two pieces!) She said she wouldn't buy it just yet!

At 6:30 dinner was ready and we all headed for the food. Well, everyone except Silky. When we got back to the table, he was just grinning. I asked him why he didn't get a plate of food and he said with confidence "Dotty will bring mine". Yes, she did! With a grin on her face, she said "I know which side of my bread is buttered". When Lynda told Silky he was full of dog sh--, Evelyn said no, it was horse sh-- because she could see the ponytail! Jo Ann had a fresh banana on her plate and said she was saving it for Fritz for later. Um, that sounds interesting. Maybe she did buy that white nightie!

After dinner, we head back to the rooms for a quick shower and change. As this note-taking reporter roved the room, it was easy to distinguish which table was Burlington's (12 people and 10 liquor bottles). It was going to be a fun night. And as the night lingered on, Buck's dance list got shorter as Silky's list seemed to grow. Vickie and Evelyn kept talking about the tile floor in the bathroom, something about it made you dizzy to look at it. Sure girls, we believe you! Later in the evening, the two of them were doing their Rockettes routine. There were two bottles of Spiced Rum on our table. Ask George why he thought it smelled so good that he wanted everyone else to smell it too!

Our good friends from Danville Shag Club were there and we visited each others tables several times. Ask Dotty to explain what kind of stirrers she had in her liquor case. She had a hard time trying to tell the Danville folks. The evening is wearing down, time to head back to the rooms and get some rest for Sunday morning.

Continental breakfast was served at 10:00 while the DJ's played two hours of wonderful gospel music. I would like to say a big thank you to the Lake Norman, Oasis, and Salisbury Shag Clubs for a job well done. It was a great event. There will be another trip soon, somewhere, so we invite other members to make your plans to attend and join the traveling troupe. Once again, BSC was well represented at the ACSC and we all had a fantastic time! Imagine that!!!

THANK

YOU!!!

Dear Burlington Shag Club,

Thank you so much for your generous monetary contribution that you gave for the Junior SOS. Your support for the Junior Shag Association is greatly appreciated!

Sincerely,
Oum Watkins

Watching Great Competition Shaggers!

Carolynn Whitley

What a way to spend a weekend--watching some of the best shaggers in the country compete in the SPA/CSA Shag Contest at Thirsty's in Greensboro 11-13 July 1997. It was "hotter than 40 hells", but the beer was cold, the music was great, and the shagging was terrific.

Lots of folks from Burlington (many of them members of Burlington Shag Club) were on hand to cheer for our local favorites: in the Amateur Division, Carol Oakley and Rick Shoemaker (competing together for the first time); and in the Novice Division, Judy and David Satterfield, as well as Susan and Kevin Harrell, and Loretta Lee and her partner. (We didn't have anyone competing in the Pro Division, but with all this talent, it's just a matter of time!)

At the conclusion of competition on Sunday afternoon, final points were tallied, winners were determined, and the DJ made this announcement: In the Amateur Division, the winner is Couple #6 - Carol Oakley and Rick Shoemaker! How exciting to win your first time in competition...and they can only get better!

Let's all go to the Dome in Durham the weekend of 15-16 August, to the Eno Beach Non-Pro Shag Contest, and once again cheer for Carol and Rick and all other BSC couples who compete and make sure that the Burlington Shag Club is as well represented in the crowd as we are on the dance floor!

Bunk Leach Charity Mixed Doubles - July 26-27, 1997

Carol Oakley

Another wonderful weekend of dancing at Thirsty's in Greensboro for the Bunk Leach Charity Mixed Doubles. Martha Mobley, Loretta Lee, and I danced again this year. There were 24 couples who danced and helped to raise a lot of money for the Hall of Fame. It was fun, met lots of new people and gained some new friendships. This is a fun contest because you don't know who you will dance with until you get on the floor, and pull a name out of a hat. But everything that weekend goes for the Hall of Fame Foundation, so everything is fun. I think the next mixed doubles will be in January 1998. David Oakley played in the golf outing on Saturday and also had fun and met lots of new people. He played with Tommy Mewborn, Ricky Shoemaker, and Dick Shoemaker.

WBAG 1150 AM

Evelyn Turner

As most of you know by now, there has been an ownership and managerial change at 1150 WBAG Radio. Phil Kehr is no longer there and his position was filled by Buddy Poole, new General Manager. I went over to the station last week and spoke with Buddy and with Pat Bell. Buddy advised me he wants to continue the beach and shag music in the afternoons (3-6 pm) and hopefully expand on it. Pat said he would continue the Saturday afternoon "Beach Beat" (noon-3 pm), but would occasionally be preempted in the Fall by football broadcasts. Pat is doing a great job and loves to hear from you when you call him for requests. He has given our shag club quite a lot of good promos and we appreciate them. Let's continue to tune in and support Pat for his efforts. We sure don't want to lose our great music in the afternoons.
