A Letter From The Editor

Dear Members:

Our annual Benefit Golf Tournament for Special Olympics is this Saturday. We will have a packed field of golfers and many volunteers to help who give so generously of their time. The entry fee for golfers is only $40. Now just think a minute - where else could you play golf and have your fee include green fees, cart fees, free refreshments on the course, and a meal? Of course, all the golfers know the real reason they are participating in this tournament - to help Alamance County Special Olympics.

Recently Lamont Stokes, coordinator with Special Olympics, showed me a special head gear that one of the athletes has to wear in order for her to be able to hold her head up straight. This one piece of equipment cost $600 and Lamont said it was bought with part of the proceeds of last years tournament. Lamont and Gail Barnette have told us of many things they have been able to buy with our donation. Of the money raised, only the expenses of putting on the tournament will be taken out.

I ask you to stand back and look at your healthy children and grandchildren and watch them run, play, and work without any special assistance. You will realize how fortunate you are. That should be enough to make you want to give whatever you can to this benefit.

To those of you who are playing, to the sponsors, and to the volunteers, a big THANK YOU in advance. When you get to the course you will be surrounded by love and gratitude from the Special Athletes who are so proud to be there! Nothing else can touch your heart like this.

..... Evelyn

Fall '97 SOS Remembered

by Evelyn Turner with "help" from other members

Rick & I and Ralph & Sandy Johnson were fortunate enough to be there for the first weekend, along with several other members. It was pretty good dancing because the clubs were not packed, but you can tell that the "10 day event" is beginning to grow on quite a few shaggers. If you can't find a place to dance at SOS now, you must not be looking! Since there are several more clubs open to shaggers, the total comes to 9 clubs and 16 dance floors. After trying out all the dance floors Friday night, we went back by the Barrel where Nappy Brown was performing. To say the least, it was quite a show! Rick now does a great Nappy Brown impression, just ask him to show you! The new drink for this SOS was a "Slippery Dick", they were being bought in all the clubs, especially the Arcade. Roy and Peggy were there early for the whole week; you know Roy is going to check out all the music shops and look for great new songs.

George & Vickie arrived on Sunday and after spending the afternoon on the beach with Ralph & Sandy and Rick & me, (I think the guys tried to "out-beer" each other), we headed to Santa Fe Station for dinner. Don't ask George or Rick about it - neither one of them even remember being there! We came back to the Arcade to dance a while, but George decided he was ready to go, so he and Vickie walked back to the condo. It was only 3 blocks, but I understand George had to sit down and rest several times. It was good to see J.C. and Janet at SOS. J.C. is doing really good since his heart attack, but Janet could not get him on the dance floor very often.

The street festival on Monday was pretty good and had great attendance. For those of you who have never seen Little Isodore, he has a pony tail also, except that his is pulled up to the top of his head and spreads out in a circle. This might be a new style for Buddy and Roy! Before leaving Burlington, Joe Smith reminded Pat about her SOS card. "Don't forget it", he said with emphasis. She didn't, but guess who got to the beach and had forgotten his card!

As mid-week rolls around, the clubs are getting busier each night. Jimmy and Mary Ann always seem to find a table, how lucky they are. One night, Dotty was feeling really good, if you know what I mean. Another woman had asked Buddy to dance and about half way through the song, Dotty decided she wanted to dance with him so she walked out on the floor and gave the woman the boot! There is a fiesty little lady hidden behind that sweet, lovable exterior. My resources tell me Carol Pettigrew was making a fashion statement of her own with a bandana on her head one night. Seems that it was a gift from someone, you'll have to ask her who. Of course, golf course that is, Bubba played his usual 3 or 4 rounds during the week.

Mike and Edna were looking gorgeous as usual as they were leaning over the patio wall at the Barrel talking to those walking by. "Buck" and Lynda were both having a fun time on Friday afternoon dancing with lots and lots of other shaggers. Shortly afterwards, we saw David & Judy Satterfield and David & Carol Oakley holding down one of the benches on the street and all four of them appeared to have the "feel-good syndrome". Glenda White was feeling no pain after the party at the Barrel and we didn't see her and Bob again until early Sunday morning (but I understand Bob was the one who was not well). I heard Barney and Pam had crabs one night - gosh, I sure hope that meant for dinner!

Fall '97 SOS - continued

It's a good thing Fritz and Jo Ann were walking along with Susan and Kevin on Saturday afternoon, because after looking at their eyes, I'm not sure Susan and Kevin could have stayed on the street very well by themselves! Now rumor has it Larry Jordan was dancing up on a table at the Arcade Saturday night. Is this a side of Larry we have not seen? Maybe Gail is not telling us something. Poor Zane, we heard he had no where to stay - said he had to sleep in his car and take his baths in the ocean - now doesn't that sound just like something he would say! Linda Maccia and Marlene Phipps were having lemon drops with the girls from Danville - instant kinship. Bob and Jim stood back and let the wives have their fun evening out. Marlene turned to me one time, rolled her eyes, and said "I'm s-o-o drunk". Larry Smith, aka "Smitty", seemed to be having a wonderful time showing how to really get down and dirty. The floor at the Arcade was awfully slick, but I don't think the slick floor was the reason Johnnie Michaels landed on it several times. This was a first time SOS for Ron and Betty Wilkerson, but I haven't yet gotten their comments. Shine was in attendance with that usual big grin on his face - does he ever not smile? It makes you think he is always up to something!

Sunday morning's gospel hours at Pirates Cove and Boulevard Grill were really good, as usual. The auction at Fat Harold's for Camp Kemo did not draw the large crowd it usually does, but it was good to see that shaggers hearts are still strong as ever. The print of Fat Harold's Hall of Fame, which was painted and donated by club member Vic Gillespie, brought a total of $2500. Sunday afternoon is always such a relaxed day and you can really enjoy a leisurely stroll around to all the clubs.

Wheh, that was a lot of reporting. Of course, we have lots of "long-time" members who are always there, but we just don't ever seem to catch them doing anything "stupid", "hilarious", "embarrassing", etc. Maybe next time. Just think, we have only a few months to rest before we're off again. By looking at our membership list, I think we had about 85 members there. That is great representation and everyone seemed to have a ball. That is what SOS is all about!
