Lynda Justice, President

Exhibition at Twin Lakes

The golf tournament was a huge success. I have heard nothing but good things! Thank you to all who helped out and brought desserts.

Dancing At Twin Lakes

Thank you to all of the three people who showed up to share our dance with the nice folks at the Twin Lakes Assisted Living Facility on May 16th. Thanks for all of your support!!

Meet The Area Shag Club Party

Don't forget to join us and other local shag club members at the Elk's Lodge on the 10th for our annual party. The fun will begin at 9:00 and go until 1:00 with lots of food, fun, and fantastic music. Go back to the 50's and join us!

Summer Workshop

Mark your calendar for the weekend of July 7-9. Come to New Bern for the ACSC Summer Workshop and party with a crowd of great folks. See flyer inside for details. Remember, we can party this summer and not have to work!!!

Club Shirts

Don't forget to see Peg Hansen to order your club shirt. We are going to place a special order so you can get any kind of shirt you want. We will probably not do this again for a while, so please get your order in.

Next Business Meeting

Our next business meeting will be held on June 16th. We are going to have to address the very important issue of what is to become of our Friday night outings in the future. Please be there to take an interest in this important issue. See you there!

Festival Of The Oaks

We have been invited to dance again at the Festival of the Oaks in Elon College on October 21st. The club voted that we would do this and ask that all of you please mark your calendar for this event. The last time we were there we had a wonderful time dancing and at our little gathering afterwards. More details later.

Don't Forget The Food !!!

The Burlington Shag Club is the host for the "Area Shag Clubs" party on Saturday, June 10th. So that means that each of you, as members of the club, need to be sure we have lots of food available for our guests. We will have fellow shaggers from at least four other clubs so let's put on a really good party for them.

This is also "Back To The Fifties" night, so for those of you who are old enough to remember the fifties, you can relive some great memories. And for those of you who weren't even born in the fifties, you can have an education by learning how the rest of us dressed and had fun during those years. Of course, as we mentioned before, it is not required that members or guests dress in the 50's theme, but that always make it a fun party. We know that quite a few shaggers from neighboring clubs will be dressed for the occasion - I have even heard that Lenny and Squiggy will be here!

Club Appreciation Party

We have discussed at several meetings about having a party for the club members in appreciation for all the work that they have done. We have never been able to get this all together as far as what to do, time, etc., so it was suggested and the club voted to have another "Tea Party" at Fall SOS. Barring conflicts, we will have it at the OD Arcade at the same time we had it last year, 4:30 on the last Saturday of SOS.

Wednesday Night Dancing

Come out to Stix Sportsbar on Wednesday nights for dancing with the music of Roy Childress. He begins at 7:00 and goes until 11:00. They have a very nice dance floor and the food is very good. For a break in the daily routine of your workweek, come on out (admission is free).

Tacky Party Night

Linda Macchia

Where were you all Friday night, May 19? This was our first Tacky Party Night and boy was it TACKY!!! Bob and I, Pam and Steve, Evelyn (Rick was working), Buddy and Dotty (yes, I said Buddy who always wears a starched shirt with shag shoes or BSC on it) and Rommie and Sherry all dressed up tackier than ever.

Bob and I first saw Evelyn in the parking lot, sitting in the van with Carl taking pictures of Lynda putting lipstick on Evelyn when she wasn't laughing. We walked over to her van and we both nearly died laughing - there sat Evelyn, more make-up than Cover girl could advertise, earrings that didn't match, shoes that didn't match, big polka dot blouse with about a size 40 EE chest (yes, 40 double E), lipstick all over her lips, and some kind of bows or flowers in her hair. Her boobs stuck out so far that Steve sat a beer bottle on one and it didn't fall off!!! She was a sight for sore eyes. I had done all my shopping at one of the local thrift stores and Bob was dressed similar to Sam Snead, blue and white checkered pants, 2 sizes too big with suspenders, ugly green shirt with golfers on it, multicolored golf hat and a polka dot tie. Well, I was just plain tacky - nothing matched, but I had bought myself a crown - I was finally "Queen For A Day".

Dotty on the other hand - looking good - similar to a "lady of the night standing on a street corner" (if you know what I mean). They drove in the parking lot at Best Western; Nita was driving and I recognized Buddy with his beautiful brown polyester pants, Parrot Bay Rum t-shirt, and brown plaid polyester jacket along with a straw hat and his tennis shoes, but I didn't know who was in the front with Nita. Then she got out - Dotty had on a wig, a brown wig, longer hair, a sexy little tank top, short white skirt, FMP shoes (I'll explain what FMP stands for), more Cover Girl make-up, and tattoos - 3 of them, looking good, struttin' her stuff.

Well, we thought for sure it was going to be just the five of us, but Pam and Steve finally showed up. Steve had on a purdy pair of light blue "summer britches" (as some older gentleman had told Pam during her shopping spree), about 3 inches too short and a little too big in the waist, with a green striped shirt and another ugly tie, while Pam was wearing blue and white paisley print "peddle pushers" with a black flowered top and red suspenders, black socks, and white sandals, hair all teased up with a big flat bow in the front. Finally Rommie and Sherry walked in, dressed not too bad I might add, she another "lady of the night", hair all teased up and Rommie with some sort of Hawaiian shirt.

At any rate, for all of you who were not there and for all of you who were there but did not participate, we had a great time. I think we laughed most of the night. This was better than Halloween; you didn't have to "be" anybody or anything - just wear what the heck you wanted, no matter what color, what size - it was hilarious. You can see by these pictures, we had some really "tacky people". Join us next time - it's really fun to do something different.

ROCK HILL SPRING FLING #18

Dotty Whaley

One night during Spring SOS, Buddy and I were in Pirate's Cove and a Rock Hill member gave us what I thought was just a business card and asked us to come to their Spring Fling. When I asked him the date, he said, "it's all on the card". What a neat idea (Lynda/Evelyn - hint, hint) instead of carrying around flyers! So we told the guy we'd go.

We called Steve and Kathy St. Clair (members). They mailed us a flyer with all the scoop, and away we go. We get to the motel just in time to eat and change and we're off to the Elk's Lodge. Nice place. There's already a line! We're greeted by and officially meet Ron and Peggy Wisenhart as we're standing in line. They can't believe we came all the way from Burlington. We tell them the whole business card/Pirate's Cove story. We get checked in and I had to buy a T-shirt; they're so cute.

We pick a table, set up bar and mix up one of our favorites. Ron cones over to tell us what all they're offering in the refreshment department and then Steve does, and then Peggy does, and on and on. We explain to them all, most parties don't offer what we drink, tell them what we drink and we always bring our own when it's legal. They all check out our portable bar and figure we're good to go.

We had just asked Steve if York County Shag Club partied with them, when who walks it? York County; Summie and a whole bunch of the gang. They set up at tables next to us and hurry off to the food line. While they're gone, in walks Tommy and Sheila Samole, Michaele (Lake Norman) and Kay (Charlotte). Clyde is spinning the tunes. People actually stopped in the middle of their meals to dance. Tell me he ain't good! We met lots and lots of people. You know how I am with names. Everyone was so nice to us. We danced with so many people I won't even try to name them, BUT THEY WERE ALL FUN!!!

They gave away lots of door prizes. Buddy won a pool float. The 50/50 was over $400. A lady from Rock Hill Club won I believe. They did a "Carlos and Charlie's/Tequila line dance". We did not participate ( I think I've finally learned my lesson when it comes to mixing alcohol!), but it sure was fun to watch.

We hated for it to be over. We'll see some of them again in New Bern at the Summer Workshop, but a lot, not until Fall SOS. I drive us back to the motel. We're talking and laughing non-stop about what fun we had and as we're walking up to the motel door, who do we meet but Ellen Taylor. Stop and chat for a moment (she's here for a wedding) and it's off to beddie-bye.

Fun is not over yet. After a wonderful Mother's Day/Waffle House breakfast, we're on our way home and Buddy gets pulled for speeding. We've already been to the party, not in any particular hurry and he forgot to turn on the radar detector. The patrolman was really nice. Told Buddy he clocked him at 68 in a 55 (work zone on top of that). Buddy was really nice also, told the patrolman that when he looked down, he was running 72. The officer asked for his drivers license and registration. We experienced a few tense moments trying to track down the registration. The officer tells Buddy he'll be right back and we can be on our way. He walks back to his car to write the ticket. In just a few minutes he's back telling Buddy he had good news. Buddy said "what's that"? The officer hands him a warning ticket, tells him to watch his speed and have a nice day!!!! Is the man lucky or what? I told him if it had been me, the officer would have probably written it for 168 in a 55. We thanked him profusely and went on our VERY, MERRY, UNTICKETED, 55 mph way.
