I want to say "thank you" to those of you who felt it was important to come out to the meeting Saturday night. # ACSC Summer Workshop - New Bern, NC

July 7-9, 2000 - Evelyn Turner

The summer workshop for this year was set in a beautiful location, the Sheraton Grand Hotel in New Bern, located right on the Trent River with a marina right up to the hotel walkway. The weather could not have been more perfect, and the 26 members of the Burlington Shag Club who attended this event seemed to enjoy every minute of it. By Friday afternoon everyone had arrived, even Bill & Gail Inge and Mike & Pat Gumula who came in on Bill's boat and docked at the marina. As usual, our good brothers and sisters from the Danville Shag Club were there, and we were all ready for the partying to begin. Friday night was fun although the ballroom was quite crowded.

After a continental breakfast Saturday morning, we leisurely spent time at the pool and on the deck. After we listened to the DJs early Saturday afternoon, some of us were going to walk around downtown New Bern. But, we went by the lounge just for a few minutes to listen to The Heaters, and stayed almost the whole three hours they were played! What a great band if you like really good upbeat rhythm and blues, and we all had a ball with our beer can shakers. There were free pours and food all weekend long. I think it was unanimous that the Saturday afternoon heavy hors d'oeuvre dinner outside on the grounds in front of the marina was the best food of all. I think Rick, Jesse, and Bobby Jones made several trips to the food tables. Almost all of our gang made it for dinner Saturday (one had just a few shooters too many and couldn't quite make it back out - but don't worry Dickie, I won't tell anyone who it was!). The ballroom Saturday night was not as crowded as it was Friday night so there was a little more room to dance.

Sunday morning, everyone packed up and headed home after a fun weekend with good friends. If you have never attended one of these workshops, make plans to do so, they are lots of fun. Our thanks go to the Twin Rivers Shag Club of New Bern for hosting this workshop.
