June 2006

From the Prez,
Greetings,

What a great spring it has started out to be! The excitement that carries on after SOS is just tremendous. The compliments from other clubs and fellow shaggers about our float success makes us jump for joy. Coming soon is our Luau Party. Several clubs have already notified us about bringing large groups. It was so much fun last year, how are we going to top that? Just leave it up to the entertainment committee and you will see. Remember the June 10th Area Shag Club Party is going to be a blast. The Workshop is just around the corner and a lot of you have volunteered to help. A lot of you are just coming to the party to have fun. In any case, it promises to be a tremendous time with a lot of our friends and a bright and great opportunity to show off the talents and team work that Burlington is known for.

The ENO Area Shag Club Party was a lot of fun, with over 30 of our members who showed up to support and have fun with our fellow shag club. It was a great crowd with delicious food, beautiful decorations and a friendly atmosphere. Mary and Brenda won 1st. and 2nd place in their 50's costume contest. Congratulations to the members of ENO, you all done a wonderful job!

The Bylaws first meeting is scheduled for June 2nd. At 8:00pm in the Ramada. The meeting will start promptly and end at 9:00pm as not to interfere with our regular Friday night gathering. Please be on time and learn about the rules that govern our club. As you can see the club is very active and people are having loads of fun. It would even be more fun if everyone of you came out to support the club. All of you play a special part in the success of the club. Pulling together, our potential is unlimited. Let's remember those that are sick and members who have lost someone dear to them. We are all thinking of you and you are in our prayers. Have a great summer and remember to Shag for fun.

Shaggin', because we love to!

- 1. Ronnie called the meeting to order at 8:08 p.m. Asked if any new members were present; there were no new members at the meeting.
- 2. Current roster has 202 members. There were no changes to be made to the minutes so they stand as printed in the May newsletter.
- 3. Sheila Walker announced there would be a By-Laws special meeting on Friday night, June 2nd at 8:00 at the Ramada. This date was scheduled so it would not inconvenience anyone during the week and members could just come out an hour earlier on Friday before going to the lounge. She asked all members to review the drafts that were given out and be prepared to discuss any modifications they may have.
- 4. Spring Safari Parade - Brenda Smith and Baxter Sellars brought the First Place trophy that our club won for Best Shag Theme for the fourth consecutive year. They thanked all the members who participated and all of the sponsors who supported this effort. Brenda announced that with all the sponsors, sales of shirts, and other contributions, the shag club wound up spending only $2 of club money. Ronnie thanked everyone involved, whether it was someone working on the float or just support from the general membership and thanked everyone on his or her accomplishments. Sheila said the Capital Area Shag Club has challenged us on the parade next year.
- 5. ACSC Summer Workshop - Ticket requests are coming in quickly now. Mary reminded all members that they have to buy tickets also. The Danville Shag Club has asked to sponsor one of the hospitality hours. The Ramada Inn is completely sold out. La Quinta and Best Western still have rooms available. Mary reminded us that shuttles would be running from those hotels to the Ramada on a regular basis. She advised everyone of the committee heads again and asked members to call and volunteer. The committee heads are listed on the shag club website. Please contact Rick Wolfe if you can bring food for the hospitality hours.

6. Area golf tournaments - Jesse Justice said the team from Burlington played at Eden and came in 3rd place, and played in Greensboro and tied for 1st place.

7. Denise said there were still seats available in the van for tomorrow night's party at the Tavern for the Eno Beach Shag Club. Will meet at K & W Cafeteria.

8. BSC Area Shag Club Party - Denise still needs volunteers to bring food. She will contact members and ask what they can bring. Brenda advised all plans are set for the party at the Moose Lodge on June 10th. Rick Wolfe has raffle tickets to be sold - asked that members take a pack to sell.

9. Meals On Wheels Benefit 2007 - Ronnie said we needed to decide on a band and asked Al Fogleman to advise us of any preliminary actions. Jonnie Ellington contacted some bands several months ago and got prices. Shaggie Maggie and Lia and the Wave had both expressed interest in performing for the benefit and would like to perform together. Al said one band would come on at 8:00 and the other come on after the exhibition dancers, and then both combined would finish off the night. Their cost was a total of $1800, the same amount as one band would charge. Coastline quoted $1800, as did Rickey Godfrey. Other bands were $2500 and up. Brenda said we should make our event more special. Pam McHone said she thought the date was not good and that it should be in spring or summer. Susan McKinney thought the date was good and it gave attendees a chance to dress a little more formal for an event. Carol Pettigrew thought Shaggie Maggie and Lia and the Wave were too local and may not draw well. Fred Hallaman said he had heard good things about Shaggie Maggie and asked who mostly came to the event, shaggers or outside guests. Al said he thought the local bands would draw a good crowd. Steve Pettigrew thought we should not consider the cost, but to pick a band that would be good. Lynda Justice commented that we have tried for 13 years to get neighboring shag clubs to come and it hasn't really made a difference. Ron Wilkerson thought most guests came to see the Junior Shaggers anyway. A vote was taken and Coastline was first choice so they will be contacted to see if they are available. Since this is a Burlington Shag Club sponsored function, at Al's request, Meals on Wheels is going to let the club make most of the arrangements. The date has been set for Saturday, February 10th.

Congratulations, to the BSC Golfing team:

Jesse Justice
Lynn Hooper
Bow Newman
Coy Justice

They played in Steppin' Out Shag Club's Golf Tournament on May 6th. It was a Benefit for the Beth Mitchell Foundation and Stoneville Children's Club.

They finished 3rd. with a score of 17 under.

The Burlington Shag Club sponsored a hole and Jesse said the sign looked great!

Also, congratulations again to BSC Golfers!

Bo Newman
Lynn Hooper
Jesse Justice
Randy Atkerson

They tied for First Place in Triad Shag Club's Golf Tournament in Greensboro.

They tied for 1st. place, with a score of 20 under.

Congratulations, guys! You represented Burlington very well.

10. Carol Pettigrew is taking orders for shirts for the summer workshop. They are pink oxford cloth, short sleeve dress shirts. Cost is $16. Please see Carol by June 9th to order.
11. Steve McHone announced that Harry Wade's daughter, who previously worked for Petty Enterprises and has given many items to our benefit (including the Petty Driving Experience), has now gone to work for the Victory Junction Gang Camp. To thank her for her donations, Steve asked that the Burlington Shag Club make a donation of $500 to Victory Junction Gang Camp in her honor. A motion was made, seconded, and passed. Peg Hansen, who volunteers at the camp, is attending a meeting there on Monday night and said she would be proud to present the check to them.
12. The 50/50 drawing was won by Susan McKinney.
13. Evelyn Turner suggested a display of some type be made for the parade trophies before the summer workshop starts.
14. Ronnie asked everyone to remember our sick members and those in service to our country.
15. Next meeting June 16th.
16. With no further business to discuss, Ronnie closed the meeting at 8:59 p.m.
